

Red Rock Democratic Club
General Meeting
May 24, 2023 at Temple Sinai and via Zoom

In attendance were President Deidre Radford, Vice President Hunter Cain, Secretary Lani Paz, Communications Director Chris Solomon, Membership Director Edith Cardiff. Absent Board members were Fundraising Director Michele Bowen, Political Outreach Director Fikisha Miller, and Treasurer Brian James.

Deidre called the meeting to order at 6:40. She opened the meeting with a salute to Native Americans and gave thanks for our use of their land. She also thanked April General Meeting speaker, Chris Daly, the Deputy Executive Director of Government Relations of the NSEA Teacher's Union.

Edie reported the club has 73 regular members and 64 Gold for a total of 137 members.

There was a motion from the floor to accept Lani's May Meeting minutes; there was a second from Edie and the motion was passed by acclaim.

Deidre announced the upcoming Red, White, and Blue club fundraising event is tentative set for August 26, 2023. The event will include NV Senators Jacky Rosen and Catherine Cortez-Masto as well as NV Congressional Members, Susie Lee and Steve Horsford as well as other state legislative and assembly representatives. The fundraiser will be a Democratic celebration with food, adult beverages, and entertainment. Last year's fundraiser enabled the club to donate over $14,000 to Nevada Democratic races.

Deidre announced that the June General meeting will focus on the 2023 Legislative session.

Deidre introduced the evening's speaker Sarah Levin with Secular Strategies and Athar Haseebullah, the Executive Director, ACLU Nevada. The topic was White Christian Nationalism and Antisemitism.

The meeting included approximately 47 attendees in-person or via Zoom. The Split the Pot totaled $88 dollars. Sabastain Dandridge won and took home $44.00

The meeting ended at 8:15 PM.
